

Adams State College Nursing Program HESI Testing

- Students are required to achieve the identified benchmark on each practice exam- they can take them as often as need be to achieve that score.
- Students are required to take the following proctored HESI exams. It is recommended that students achieve the designated benchmark on all proctored exams as defined by the course faculty. Students not achieving the benchmark score are encouraged to complete the remedial activities provided by HESI.
- Faculty are responsible for scheduling computer labs for the proctored exams.
