

Web Application Developer

#A5B004

Reports to the Director of Communications and has the following duties:

1. Participate with Communications Office and Computing Services staff in meeting objectives of Adams State's Strategic Plan through technical web initiatives that enhance online marketing communications activities.
2. Work closely with the Communications Office personnel and Computing Services staff to identify, develop, test and implement web applications that will help ASC maintain currency in an evolving web environment
3. Analyze traffic patterns through the site and provide quantitative recommendations for improvement
4. Provide leadership in the management of the ASC Portal and web content management systems
5. Provide technical web and content management support to campus constituency
6. Maintain system documentation for web applications
7. Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in relevant field (Computer Science, Management Information Systems, etc.) or related experience
- Demonstrated proficiency with XHTML and CSS
- Working knowledge of PHP and SQL
- General knowledge of AJAX, XML, Perl, javascript, JAVA, mySql, postgresql, Apache, Linux would prove very useful
- Working knowledge of web applications development, best practices
- Demonstrated experience with project management
- Web 2.0, Systems integration knowledge a big plus
- Background in Higher Education a plus
- Ability to work effectively as a team member, and with both technical and non-technical constituencies
- Flexibility to take on new tasking
- Adaptability to a rapidly changing technology environment
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Willingness to take initiative, work independently, prioritize multiple projects, set and meet deadlines
- Ability to perform position description

Rank/Salary:

Salary range: $47,000 to $51,000. Adams State College offers a competitive benefits package.

Applications:

Completed applications will include the following:

- Letter of application discussing qualifications
- Current resume with unofficial transcripts (official transcripts required prior to interview)
- Names and contact information for three references

Electronic submission of application materials preferred.

Send materials to:

Mr. Mark Schoenecker, Communications Director
Adams State College
208 Edgemont Blvd.
Alamosa, CO 81102
Email: mwschoen@adams.edu

Review of completed applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer

Adams State College is particularly interested in applications from women and minorities.

In compliance with the Immigration Control Act of 1986, candidates for positions must provide proof of eligibility to work before an offer of employment can be made final.

Full descriptions of all positions are available from the contact person listed. Adams State College is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Applications are sought from all qualified persons regardless of race, color, sex, disability and, as covered by law, veteran status. In addition, college policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, marital status, and parental status.

Adams State College
Alamosa, CO 81102
(719) 587-7011