Exhibit contract

I, _____ (artist) for the Self-Portrait Exhibit attest that the artist has the right to display the submitted artwork. The artist also certifies that the art is soundly constructed and will not cause safety or liability issues. The artist is responsible for delivery and pick up of the art. The artist releases, indemnifies, and holds Adams State College Community Partnerships, Adams State College, it’s board, employees, and volunteers harmless from any claims, actions, liabilities, losses, and attorney fees relating to or arising from losses, damage or destruction of the artwork from any cause. The artist assumes all risk associated with exhibiting art work. If Adams State Community Partnerships, Adams State College, employees, members, volunteers, or trustees are made parties in a lawsuit, arbitration, proceedings or mediation involving the exhibition of his/her art work or his/her use of the Adams State College Community Partnerships gallery, or use by his/her visitors or guest the artist shall be responsible for all costs incurred, including attorney fees, by Adams State College Community Partnerships, Adams State College or its members, employees, volunteers or trustees in such lawsuit, arbitration, proceedings, or mediation.
