Required Text:

Chaucer, Geoffrey, and Benson, Larry D., ed. (2000). The Canterbury tales, Boston: Houghton Mifflin Company.
ISBN: 0395978238

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course concentrates mainly on the Canterbury Tales, but covers other major works as time permits. The course will start with a short overview of the history, social structure, and religious concerns of Chaucer's time. The student will read the "General Prologue," the "Knight's Tale," the "Miller's Tale," the "Reeve's Tale," the "Man of law's Tale," the "Franklyn's Tale," the "Merchant's Tale," the "Second Nun's Tale," the "Clerk's Tale," the "Wife of Bath's Prologue and Tale," the "Prioresses' Tale," the "Friar's Tale," the "Summoner's Tale," the "Pardoner's Prologue and Tale," the Nun's Priest's Tale," the prologue to the "Parson's Tale," and Chaucer's "Retractions."

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

A. The student will be able to demonstrate familiarity with the Middle English language.

- B. The student will interpret Chaucer's writings by performing close readings.
- C. The student will infer the realism and timelessness in Chaucer's depiction of people and places.
- D. The student will appraise the social, historical, and religious background of Chaucer's time.
- E. The student will evaluate the influence Chaucer exercised on the language, thought, and literature of his time and succeeding times.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

The student will study the required readings and write eleven short reaction papers to selected readings. Each reaction paper is worth up to 50 points; the total will be calculated to reflect 50% of the total grade. The student will take both a proctored midterm and final examination. Each exam will be calculated to reflect 25% of the total grade.

GRADE DISTRIBUTION AND SCALE:

In alignment with ASC academic policies, no D may apply to a major or minor field.

Grade Distribution:
