Catalog Description:

An upper-division survey of the period from 1763 to 1801, with particular attention to the American Revolution, the Confederation, the Constitutional Convention, and the administrations of Presidents Washington and Adams.

Student Learning Outcomes:

The student will:

- Identify historical content in the context of the times for the period covered in this course.
- Knowledgeably discuss the significance of major themes, key concepts, and identifiable terms as related to the social, political, and intellectual history of the period, as demonstrated through the student's writing and examinations.
- Demonstrate appropriate historical writing and analysis skills by producing acceptable essays on the two assigned monographs and in the term paper.

Course Requirements:

Reading Assignments

The course is divided into three units. The student should read the text as detailed in the lessons below. Keep in mind that you are reading in order to acquire a framework on which you can view this period of history in terms of key content and identifiable terms. Rather than being expected to memorize dates of events, you will be asked to demonstrate that you have developed an understanding not only of what happened, but of the overall significance of that event to the historical period. In addition to top line events (such as might appear in newspaper headlines of the time), you are reading for social, political, and intellectual content. What key concepts or core ideas are prevalent at the time? How are these ideas influencing social and political history? What are the key conflicts taking place? Who are the players? What are the core ideas or concepts underlying these conflicts? The KEY TERMS that you should pay attention to in each chapter of each unit are listed in the study guide.

At the end of each unit of study are three or four essay questions. You should write out your answers to each one of these questions, making sure that your answers are defensible, that is, that you can support the argument you are making utilizing specific citations from the historical record. Please refer to the rubric at the end of this syllabus for guidance on how to construct an essay response based on (a.) structure, (b.) evidence, and (c.) quality of writing.

YOUR UNIT EXAMINATION WILL CONSIST OF ONE OF THESE FOUR ESSAY QUESTIONS, PLUS A LIST OF EIGHT KEY TERMS. YOU WILL BE EXPECTED TO CHOOSE FIVE OF THE EIGHT TERMS THAT APPEAR ON THE EXAM. YOU WILL BE ASKED TO EXPLAIN EACH TERM AND IDENTIFY THE SIGNIFICANCE OF EACH TO THE HISTORICAL PERIOD.

Examinations

EXAMINATIONS. There are three units of study in this course, with an examination at the end of each unit. As stated above, each examination will consist of a list of eight identification terms, from which you will choose five. The examination will also include one of the three or four essay questions for which you have already prepared a response.

Each exam is worth 50 points. The essay is worth 35 points (70%). The identification items (significant terms) are worth 3 points each or 15 points total (30%).

The FINAL EXAMINATION will be included in the exam for Unit Three and will be worth an additional 50 points. The comprehensive examination section will include an essay question drawn from one of the three units of study (and for which you have previously prepared) and will be worth 35 points. There will be an additional list of identification items drawn from the entire course of study. Again, there will be eight items on this list, from which you will choose five. The comprehensive identification items are also worth three points each for a total of 15 points.

Guidelines For Proctored Exams

Please send your exam request form three weeks BEFORE you plan to take the exam to:

Attn: Independent Study Program Manager
Extended Studies
Adams State College
208 Edgemont Blvd.
Alamosa, CO 81102

1. No more than one exam may be taken on the same day unless authorized by the instructor.
2. Exams may not be sent to or written at a residential address.
3. The main concern for a proctor is to preserve the academic integrity of the examination. No relative, immediate work supervisor or co-worker may be a proctor. The following is a list of acceptable proctors:
 - Elementary or secondary school superintendents, principals, teachers or guidance counselors
 - Professional employees of accredited post secondary colleges or universities

- Professionals working for the public or private libraries
 - Commissioned officers of the active duty military, National Guard or Reserve Components
 - Clergy
 - Military Education, College Continuing Education or Distance Learning Staff
 - Human Resource and Training Managers/Directors
4. Adams State College reserves the right to verify a proctor's identity, require additional proof of eligibility, or require the selection of a different proctor.
 5. The following guidelines will be sent to your proctor to ensure proper testing conditions:

Before the exam:

- Arrange a time for the students to take the exam.
- Carefully read the cover letter sent with the exam and ensure the directions are clear.
- Ask the student to show identification if you do not know him/her.
- Instruct the student of any specifics pertaining to the exam. Information about the use of notes, texts, or calculators can be found on the examination sheet.

Administering the exam:

- Find a quiet area where the exam may be taken with little distraction.
- Allow the student to bring in only those materials needed for the exam.
- Set a watch or timer for the exact amount of time allotted for the exam. When the time expires, collect the exam from the student whether he/she is finished or not.

Following the exam:

- Complete all proctor forms, including signature of this exam certificate.
- Make a copy of the completed exam for your files, in the event the exam may get lost in the mail. Please destroy this copy after 30 days. Do not make a copy for the student.
- Mail the exam and proctor forms in the envelope provided. The student should provide postage. Do not allow the student to mail the exam him/herself. Examinations may not be faxed.
- Do not read or discuss the exam with the student.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Extended Studies. Our office hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday thru Friday. Summer hours are 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Monograph Essays

Each student shall craft a five-page essay in response to the following questions: (These essays should be typed-double spaced, no more than 12 point font, one-inch margins all around). Essays will be submitted through the SafeAssign links in each Unit. The essays will be run through plagiarism detection tools. Plagiarism is a serious academic offense and may result in a score of zero and further discipline action. See the Adams State College Student Handbook for more information.

1. Having read Berkin, Revolutionary Mothers, in what ways did women participate in and experience the American Revolution? Did this encounter make the revolution, revolutionary? (Due at the end of Unit 1.)
2. Having read Ellis, American Creation, write an accurate and insightful essay on the following: Historians are fond of the idea of contingency: historical events often could have turned out differently than they did. How is contingency illustrated in the seven episodes surveyed by Joseph Ellis? Why was the course taken that was taken? (Due at the end of Unit 2.)

Term Paper

Each student shall draft a term paper, addressing an essential aspect of the era of the American Revolution. It should contain a minimum of ten pages of text and use the endnote citation form described in Turabian, Manual for Writers. These must make wholesale use of available primary sources and address a controversy in the scholarship in the era of the American Revolution. You must obtain my informal approval for a topic and submit a prospectus describing what you are going to argue and what source materials you will use prior to submitting your final paper. The Term Paper will be submitted through the SafeAssign links in Unit 3. Plagiarism is a serious academic offense and may result in a score of zero and further discipline action.
