To create the email list, click on the “New List” button on the toolbar.
Give the list a name and a description. You can also give the list a nickname if you want to.
As you start typing addresses in the list, Thunderbird automatically finds the entry in your addressbook.
Card for Andrew Jackson

Contact

- Display Name: Andrew Jackson
- Email: Andrew.Jackson@whitehouse.gov

You can also drag-and-drop the entries from your addressbook onto the list name to add them.
Clicking on the list will display all of the contacts that are on the list. Note that you may need to click on the "u" next to the Personal Address Book" to display your list.
