AN AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETER WANTED: Must be fluent and/or certified in ASL Interpretation. The individual hired would be attending classes with an Adams State University student and translating the lectures into ASL for approximately 15 hours per week, although this time requirement could vary. This is an hourly paid position. Interested parties should contact Gregg Elliott at the Counseling and Career Center at Adams State University at 587-7746 or at ODS@adams.edu. This position must be filled immediately. If you are interested, please reply as soon as possible.