

Attachment 1

Adams State University Community Partnerships – Accomplishments (centerpiece programs highlighted in this color below: cultural arts, community organizing, environmental sustainability projects and business support)

Program	Outcomes	Partners
SEED Park-organizational development, community workshops, outreach and input	Generated public input into regional development of the concept of developing a zero waste Ag-Biz Park that would support agriculture-biz green job and business development; assisted SEED in obtaining their non-profit IRS status and strategic plan; 2009-present	Resource Conservation and Development Group, EARTH Nest, Global Scientific, Inc., Economic Development Administration
Solar Expo	Coordinated large community event, attracted 507 participants; 2007	ASC Science, Sociology professors, SLV Ecosystem Council, EPA, USDA RC&D, El Pomar, Water Conservancy District, Development Resources Group, TIERRA Consulting
Green Home Design Workshops	Created annual program that provides training to local companies and individuals looking to build green or retrofit buildings to be energy efficient 2009-present	Habitat4Humanity, Natural Power, Science Dept.
Solar Installation Workshops	Provided solar training workshop for local companies and individuals, course credit provided to participants, 43 participants; 2009-2010	Natural Power, Sustainable Solutions, Inc., CoSEIA, SLV Solar Association
Colorado Field Institute	Incubated the formation and organization of the Institute, assisted in mission, vision facilitation of this environmental education group; 2006-ongoing	Colorado College, Sand Dunes National Park, Bureau of Land Management
Energy Efficiency Workshops	Two free public presentations on home energy efficiency; 33 people attended; 2009	Xcel Energy
Sustainability Model Study	Connected EPA with key community stakeholders, coordinated a student marketing research project related to EPA's study; 2007-2012	EPA, ASC Marketing Class, Development Resources Group, Sand Dunes National Park, Nature Conservancy
National "Teach-In"	Co-coordinated large community event, attracted 410 participants; 2009	ASC Science, Sociology, SLV Ecosystem Council, EPA, USDA RC&D, El Pomar, Development Resources Group
Climate Change Symposium and Panel Discussion	Co-coordinated and marketed large community event, 240 people attended; 2007	SLV Ecosystem Council, USDA/Resource Conservation and Development Office, SLV Water Conservancy District, State Engineers Office, Development Resources Group, TIERRA Consulting
Climate Change Challenge Exhibit	Involved K-12 students & teachers valley wide; expanded discussion and awareness of community; 46 people attended; 2007	Alamosa HS, Antonito HS, Del Norte High School, Community Volunteers

Conserving Colorado's wildlife while promoting a New Energy Future	Workshop on climate change and its impact on Colorado Wildlife, free public workshop; 32 people attended; 2009	Colorado Wildlife Federation
Plastic bottle cap recycling program (ongoing)	Coordinated "gap" recycling of bottle caps program with private for-profit partner, approximately 300,000 caps recycled to date; 2008-present	Aveda Corporation, K-12 School Districts, Community members, Davis Engineering
Hightech recycle program: Ink cartridge, cell phone and laptop recycling program (ongoing)	Hard to recycle items kept out of local landfill, program income earned.; 2008-present	Greendisk, multi-campus Dept, K-12 schools, community
Recycle Art/Product Expo	Raised awareness of amount of discarded material; provided local entrepreneurs with opportunity to sell work; showcased products, including art made from recycled material, average of 75 people attend each year; 2008-present (annual event)	Local entrepreneurs, artists faculty, staff, students, community volunteers, (Development Resources Group, Professor, Business Owners-judges)
Annual Recycle Fashion Show	Raised awareness of amount of discarded material; obtained involvement from ASC students, 72 people attended; 2008-present	St. Vicente's Thrift Store, ASU faculty, staff, students, community, EARTH Group, PALS
Reusable Bag initiative (ongoing)	Coordinated reusable bag program with local grocery store providing rebate for use, 2500 reusable bags sold; obtained athlete participation in sales and outreach; 2008-present	City Market, Valley Food Co-Op, Farmers Market, Safeway, EARTH Group, City of Alamosa
Renovation of Vacant Building for Community Outreach Center	Obtained $965,000 in funding and leveraging from three grant sources for the renovation; renovation completed with energy efficiency upgrades; 2006	HUD Community Partnerships and Outreach Center, Gates Family Foundation, Boettcher Foundation
Chair Challenge	Kept 98 old student chairs out of landfill by removing fixed chairs from classroom being remodeled; saved approx. $15,000 in contractors removal and disposal fee; earned approximately $2,500 in program income; 2006-2008	Luther Bean, Astater, FreeCycle, Community members, ASC Students, Sacred Heart Church, San Luis Valley Museum

Southern Colorado (SoCo)Film Commission organizational start-up	Collaborated with local business owners to develop a regional film commission in order to attract film producers to the region in order to boost the economy and tourism; 2010-present Org established, member of Assoc. of Film Commissions International and Colorado Film Commission; successfully recruited Disney to film scenes for “The Lone Ranger”—300 crew members for 10 days, spending $6.1 in region; organized casting call at ASU Theatre with 4580 attendees ; 2012	Ski-Hi Theatre, Colorado Gators, ASU Theatre Students, Sandi Casting
High Performance Building Workshop	Hosted and advertised workshop to inform greater energy efficiency and for renewable energy potential for government buildings; 32 people attended; 2010	Governors Energy Office
Over the River Project	Obtained 23 retrospective museum quality 3ft x 4ft photographs of Christo and Jeanne Claude’s work as donation to Adams State’s Art Department	Christo’s business manager
Talk Straight to Adams State	Engage Community in discussing pertinent community concerns, issues and challenges; bring all points of views together, coordinate and market event:. Oil & Gas Forum 2012, 115 attendees	Colorado Oil & Gas Commission, Rio Grande Watch Dogs, Environmental Attorney, Rancher who leased mineral rights, Science Dept., San Luis Valley Ecosystem Council
Art Behind Bars project	Principle grant writer for successful funding for project to provide art training to local inmates; coordinated inmate exhibit in collaboration with SLV Museum, Inmate work displayed at Denver International Airport and Colorado Capital, 42 inmates and families participated; 2012	Randy Pijoan-Artist/Ventura Press Non-Profit, Alamosa Sheriff’s Office, SLV Museum, Colorado Creatives
The Democracy School	Arranged and Coordinated The Democracy School taught nationally by Thomas Linzey, Exec Director of Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund for the San Luis Valley; 18 attended, including 3 County Commissioner Candidates; 2012	Autumn @ Adams Committee, Rio Grande Watch Dogs
Screen of “Gasland” and Skyping with Josh Fox, Director	Coordinated, promoted and funded event. 135 students and community members attended, interaction with Josh Fox led to increased student involvement in environmental dialogue; 2011	Rio Grande Residents, including Tom Wolter and Suzi Constance, Grizzly Activities Board

Wes Wilson Presentation	Invited Wes Wilson, EPA Environmental Analyst to speak in Del Norte and answer community concerns related to drilling, arranged drill site visit; 41 people attended, including local government officials; 2012	Rio Grande Watch Dogs, SLV Ecosystem Council
Art for Endangered Landscapes	Partnered with SLV Ecosystem Council to coordinate this artists 'plein air' event drawing attention to endangered landscapes, hosted exhibit which served as fund raiser for SLV Ecosystem Council, selling $8,500 in artwork; 2012	SLV Ecosystem Council, Local artists
Solar Reserve Workforce Training Facilitation	Coordinated local workforce and training organizations to meet with company official to discuss workforce needs of this large solar farm; 2013	Solar Reserve
Talk Straight to Adams State	Engage community in discussing issues that impact the community from various perspectives, coordinate and marketed this educational event: Healthcare Reform, 84 attendees; 2013	Health & Human Services, SLV Regional Medical Center, The Colorado Trust, Valleywide Health Services, University of Colorado, Tom Deegan, RN
Intervention Community Services Program (ongoing)	Provide placement and coaching for students who are court ordered to perform community service; as of April 2013, 18 students placed, 432 hours of useful public service completed; 2009-present	SLV Mental Health Center, Court System
Vocational Rehabilitation Client Training (ongoing)	Provide work assessment, work training and business support services to disabled clients; 52 clients assisted, 3 small businesses created, 2 self-employed through work at home production; 2010-present	Colorado Vocational Rehabilitation, New Beginnings
Crowd funding for Laid off Workers at Mushroom Farm	Coordinated an online fundraiser for local workers laid off during Chapter 11 reorganization of local mushroom farm. $3100 raised to help families make the transition; 2012	Sacred Heart Church's Social Justice Group, La Puente
Alamosa Mural Project	Obtained funding from National Endowment for the Arts for community mural project for downtown public art; Coordinated several community input activities into the conception of the artwork; 2013-ongoing	National Endowment for the Arts, SLV Museum, ASU Alumnus-Ian Wilkinson
Business Counseling (ongoing)	Provide free, confidential business counseling to an average of 122 clients per year; 341 average client hours resulting in an average of 14 small biz start-ups, 5 business retentions a year; 2005-present	Volunteer Business Mentors, ASU School of Business and Community Partnerships' staff