NEW MEXICO/COLORADO RECIPROCAL TUITION PROGRAM INFORMATION SHEET

At this time, Adams State University participates in the New Mexico/Colorado Reciprocal Tuition Program.

Program Stipulations:

The student must be eligible for in-state tuition with the state of New Mexico.

Eligibility Requirements:

- 1) Students must initially enroll as a full-time student and continue enrollment as such.
- 2) Renewal is contingent upon maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. For transfer students, the grade point averages are based upon coursework from previous institutions as well as Adams State University.
- 3) The number of tuition waivers are limited and granted on a first-come, first-served basis. Those who meet the eligibility requirements, but do not receive a waiver because of unavailability, will be put on a waiting list.

- 4) Students are required to inform Adams State University of their desire to participate in the program prior to registration for each academic period.
- 5) Students are required to provide complete and accurate information needed to document their eligibility for the program.
- 6) Students must inform officials at Adams State University of any change of address or other changes that might affect their eligibility for participation in the upcoming term.

Call our Admissions Office at 1-800-824-6494 ext. 7712 for more information on this program.

* If you are a scholarship recipient and will be completing your program of study in one semester, either the fall or spring, your scholarship will be prorated to half of the value. The only exception for the scholarship to be paid in full, is if you have an outstanding tuition balance only, for that semester.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

SECTION I: ADAMS STATE UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION & OTHER PRIVATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships available to Adams State University students funded by private sources for both resident and nonresident students.

SECTION II: MCDANIEL SCHOLARSHIPS—SEE REVERSE OF APPLICATION FOR LISTING.

Scholarships available to Adams State University students funded by private sources for both resident and nonresident students.

This publication has been produced by the Adams State University Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships to help you in your efforts to fund your education.

Deadlines for these scholarships vary. Generally the application deadline for most Adams State University scholarships is March 1st. You must first be accepted at Adams State University to apply for scholarships. All successful recipients of Adams State University scholarships will be notified in writing and/or by e-mail of the scholarship they have been awarded.

Finally, to make the best use of this list, you should be aware of the following: A “resident of the State of Colorado” or just “resident” is defined on the basis of criteria used by the Adams State University Registrar’s Office. Individual scholarship donors may determine other definitions, such as what constitutes United States residency.

According to Adams State University, a full-time, first-time undergraduate seeking their first bachelor’s degree (2nd BA not applicable) is one who is enrolled in 12 credit hours or more each semester. All scholarships require full-time on campus enrollment unless otherwise stated. Again, individual donors may alter this definition. All scholarships are available to undergraduate students unless otherwise stated. GPA is Grade Point Average, which is presently based on a 4.0 scale at Adams State University.

Scholarships awarded for tuition and or fee's will be based on current assessed charges for the academic year.

Demonstrated financial need will be determined from the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). All students are highly encouraged to complete and submit the FAFSA to ensure every possible type of student aid will be considered in your financial aid award package.

If you have any questions concerning how to complete the FAFSA, access the U.S. Department of Education’s website at www.fafsa.ed.gov, or contact the Adams State University financial aid office toll-free at 1-800-824-6494 ext. 7306 or in-state at 719-587-7306 or log on to our website at www.adams.edu/financialaid

You can stop by our offices at the One Stop Student Services Center on the campus of Adams State University, 208 Edgemont Blvd., Alamosa, CO 81101

All of this scholarship information is also available on the Web at www.adams.edu.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING (SECTION I) SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

Write in name of scholarship. One application must be filled out for each scholarship you are applying for.

- 1) Fill out application.
- 2) Include all necessary documentation required with each application. Some applications require additional information such as a transcript. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

- 3) Turn in applications by March 1st (unless otherwise stated) to the Adams State University One Stop Student Services Center.

SCHOLARSHIP RESOURCES

If you are interested in identifying additional scholarship resources not listed in this publication, begin at your local library. Most public and school libraries have scholarship publications in their reference sections. Scholarships can be located according to major, ethnic background, career field, etc. Simply contact your local library for more information. Follow these guidelines to research private sources of funds.

1. Plan Ahead. Locating scholarship resources takes careful preparation. Start planning for your freshman year in college as early as your sophomore year in high school; for graduate school, begin during your junior year of college.

2. Investigate All Sources. Contact business and industry organizations that provide services or products in your major/field of study.

Inquire about employee or dependent scholarship programs offered from your parent or spouse’s employer. Again, visit your public library. Also contact your local chamber of commerce, political leaders, and fraternal organizations, i.e. Elks, Mason, Eagles, etc.

3. Follow up. When you receive application forms from the donor, carefully complete them. Follow all directions and observe ALL DEADLINES. Be concerned with the quality of your application. Pay close attention to neatness, spelling, grammar, and content.

SECTION I: ADAMS STATE UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION AND OTHER PRIVATE SCHOLARSHIPS

PLEASE USE THE APPLICATION INCLUDED AT THE END OF THIS SECTION FOR THESE SCHOLARSHIPS.

The deadline for submitting all scholarship applications is March 1st unless noted otherwise. Some scholarships require additional information — please ensure any other information required by the scholarship is submitted with the application. Applications are available from local high schools, the Adams State One Stop Student Services Center or at www.adams.edu.
