Dr. Dean Lyman was Professor of English from 1948 – 1960 and Head of the Division of Languages and Literature. According to Dr. Marv Motz he was a very well known and liked professor as well as “quite the jazz piano player,” says Motz.

The Nielsen Library has two of his books, “Christobel” and “The Great Tom Fuller” in their collection.